107 (ivan lidin) citing u.s. news and world report article that in nuclear missile age pacific is a trade street which can at any moment become a battlefield, noting second biggest group of u.s. armed forces is located in pacific area and numbers about half a million servicemen, ships of 7th fleet keep ploughing pacific, maintaining experience shows that iron fist of 7th fleet can strike at any country in asia and that washington politicians won't stop at anything to attain their hegemonistic objectives, stressing this is especially dangerous today when washington's politicians are pushing planet to brink of nuclear war. (5 min: enginter 1531)

108 nikolay gorshkov on australia and japan unwilling to provide port facilities for british aircraft carrier 'invincible', pointing to u.s. admin's concern at affair concerning british warship, noting at present moment u.s. naval armadas are plying waters of two oceans and washington is concerned that a similar incident might involve its own warships that frequently call at ports in australia, underlining australia's concern that some of these warships carry nuclear weapons, stressing that washington will not say whether its warships carry nuclear weapons or not, and britain follows suit but its standing has too little political weight to force australian govt to take an added political risk of receiving invincible.
